Public Comment for Executive Order 2017-02 Regulation Review
Arizona Board of Fingerprinting

Governor Ducey issued an Executive Order wherein he directed state agencies to conduct a review of regulatory framework. The goal is to determine any regulatory constructs that are overly burdensome, antiquated, contradictory or redundant to business and not necessary to protect consumers, public health or public safety. Agencies are asked to review and submit findings by September 1, 2017.

In accordance with Executive Order 2017-02, the Arizona Board of Fingerprinting is soliciting its regulated community for comments. You may submit comments to:
